For further guidance, consult the APA Manual available at the Reserves Desk. For additional help or questions on writing, refer to the Writing Room located in H&SS 112 OR call or stop by the Library Reference Desk. We can be reached at (803) 643-6808.
Books (pp. 202-205 of APA Manual)

Book by a single author:
Parenthetical Citation: (Moore, 2000)

Book by two authors:
Parenthetical Citation: (Ritter & Albohm, 2000)

When citing paraphrased information, no page # need be included in the in-text citation.

Chapter in an Edited Book:
Parenthetical Citation: (Allan, 1996, p. 22)

When citing a direct quotation, include the page # in the in-text citation.

Encyclopedia Article (signed):
Parenthetical Citation: (Gelpi, 1996)

Encyclopedia Article (unsigned):
Parenthetical Citation: (“Portuguese Language,” 1998)

Journals/Magazines/Newspapers (pp. 198-202 of APA Manual)

Journal Article with Continuous Pagination:
Parenthetical Citation: (Armstrong, 1993, p. 72)

Parenthetical Citation: (Ward, 1999, p. 50)

Parenthetical Citation: (“Cuba’s Women,” 2003)

With no author name, use the first 2 or 3 words of the title in quotes for the in-text citation.

Electronic Sources (pp. 187-192, 198-205 of APA Manual)

Electronic Article without DOI:
Parenthetical Citation: (Heyer-Gray, 2005, p. 469)

Electronic Article with DOI assigned: (preferred format)
Parenthetical Citation: (Youssef, Mawad, & Shaltout, 2013, p. 1226)

Refer to p. 177 of the APA Manual when citing sources with multiple authors. Guidelines vary according to the number of authors.

Parenthetical Citation: (Kehr, 2009, para. 3)

If you are giving a direct quotation, but there are no page #s, give the paragraph #, as shown above.

Online Encyclopedia:
Parenthetical Citation: (de Sousa, 2013)

If there is no publication date available, use (n.d.) in place of the date.

Parenthetical Citation: (“Ancient Egypt,” 2013)

Ebook from a Database:
Parenthetical Citation: (Fry, Veatch, & Taylor, 2011)